GC40 Intercultural ministries: a process of church-wide transformation (interim report)

True Document Date: August 14, 2009

Our discernment is based not solely on the process by which decisions are made, but on the fruits of those decisions and the extent to which we recognize ourselves as children of God in them. We make this prayerful discernment as the body of Christ aligned with the Spirit in our commitments, our relationships with one another, and our growth in the light of Christ.

We encourage the Executive of the General Council to attend to processes throughout the church that develop and build trust.
