GC33 Nuclear Submarines (1990N777)

True Document Date

August 22, 1990

The 33rd General Council urges the Canadian government to:

1. Protest the construction of an acoustic measurement facility in Behm Canal;
2. Deplore the use of Canadian waters by US submarines;
3. Pursue vigorously Canada's sovereignty claim to the waters of the Dixon Entrance;
4. Insist on environmental precautions before allowing passage of US ships through Canadian waters;
5. Adopt a policy of military de-escalation and to adopt a posture of opposition to a continuing escalation of the nuclear arms race.
