GCE40 Review of Canadian Partnership for March 2012

True Document Date: March 24, 2012

We believe the church is about God's mission in the world, one of healing and justice for all creation, and that this work is surely to be lived out and realized with others. In many varied and rich ways the work of the church, including The United Church of Canada, is accomplished through working with others, including by relationships that we know as partnerships.
